Who gives this publick Notice,

THAT his Arthritick Powder for the GOUT and RHEUMATISM, which he hath improved to such Perfection, as infallibly to remove the Disorder from the Head or Stomach in Twenty Minutes Time, gives entire Ease to all Parts in less than one Hour, it operates by a pleasant Disphoresis, gives immediate Relief as soon as taken, revives the Spirits, recovers a plentiful Perspiration to the Hands, Feet, and Parts affected. The above Gentleman challenges the whole Kingdom to produce an Instance of any one that has taken it within these several Years past, (though but a single Dose) but what has been cured, or greatly relieved by it.

And whereas all Arthritick Persons are liable to be attacked in the most noble and dangerous Parts, and surely would never (if they knew the Efficacy of this Medicine) be without so valuable a Remedy by them, as they that try will find it a certain Security against the most violent Symptoms of this Disorder; nor is it possible any one should have the Gout in the Stomach, or long in any other Part, (for it entirely eradicates the Cause) that will but take, a few Times in the Year, a Dose or two of this Powder. This Truth hath been thoroughly experienced by many of the most learned of the Faculty, who have found it the most infallible Specifick, that hath ever yet been discovered; and the Proprietors of this Medicine humbly hope, others of that honourable and useful Profession, will be so generous as to try its Ability in their Practice, and then give it the Character due to its Merit.
